Warm Welcome Awaits Gallant Guests from Budapest

From a Dream . . .

to a

Reality

Proudest man in Melbourne to-night will be Mr. Jack Skolnik, who planned and backed the tour of Hungarian soccer players.

With the assistance of Professor Arpad Csanardi, and the co-operation of the Australian Soccer Association, he brought a dream to reality.

Mr. J. Skolnik

FERENCVAROS Wins Twice in Perth

FERENCVAROS scored two easy wins over representative Western Australian elevens last week-end.

On Saturday, it won 6-1, after leading 5-0 at half-time. On Sunday, it completely dazzled the State side with its soccer artistry to win 9-0.

HAJRA FRADI!

THE Hungarians arrive to-night! They will play at Olympic Park to-morrow and next Saturday. They will receive a welcome that will make them forget everything except the joy of being here with friends who appreciate their gallantry as well as their football artistry.

As for local fans, their visit will go a long way toward making up for the keen disappointment of Hungary's withdrawal from the Melbourne Olympic Games tournament last year.

The Ferencvaros Torna Club is sometimes identified by the initials F.T.C., but is more affectionately known in Hungary by its nickname, Fradi. Watch the grins and the quickened tempo of the players in response to the encouraging roar from the stands of "Hajra Fradi!" — "Come on Fradi!"

The visiting party of eighteen players and four officials will arrive at Essendon by T.A.A. plane to-night at approximately 7.30 p.m., and a large crowd is expected to greet them.

Happiest and proudest men present will no doubt be Mr. Jack Skolnik, who conceived and backed the tour, and Professor Arpad Csanardi, whose persistence and tenacity against terrific odds brought a vague hope to wonderful reality.

This is F.T.C.'s Olympic Park programme:

FERENCVAROS HAS PROUD HISTORY

TOURISTS' CAPTAIN

DR. FERENC DEKANY.

Captain of Ferencvaros is Dr. Ferenc Dekany, who plays at left half-back. Dr. Dekany, who is a Doctor of Laws, has often been a member of the National B team.

56 Years in First Division

THE Ferencvaros Torna Club was registered 58 years ago, and has been in the First Division since 1901 — a span of 56 years.

During that time, F.T.C. has won the State League Championship 18 times, and has been runner-up 17 times.

The Hungarian Cup competition, opposite number of the British F.A. Cup, has been contested for 24 seasons. F.T.C. has won the cup nine times, and was runner-up on three occasions.

Challenging for the international Mit-Europa Cup in nine years, F.T.C. was a finalist five times, and won the Cup twice.

Ferencvaros has played soccer on four continents and in 29 countries, and has piled up an impressive record abroad, including a 3-2 win over Uruguay, and a 3-all draw with Mexico.

Since January, 1956, F.T.C. has played 14 International fixtures, and conceded only four draws and two defeats. Included in its eight successes were wins over Vienna Rapid 4-2, Belgrade B.S.K. 2-1, the Danish Aarhus 10-0, the French Lens 7-1, the Yugoslavian Spartak Subotica 1-0, and the Czech Slovan 2-1.

National Players.

More Ferencvaros players have been selected for the Hungarian National teams than from any other club. Usually there are five or more Ferencvaros players representing Hungary — on one occasion there were nine!

Of the team available for Australia, nine have been National representatives several times, outside-left Fenyvesi topping the list with 13 selections, and centre-half Kispeter running him a close second with 11 appearances.

Memo to HUNGARIAN PATRIOTS

Heroes of Hungary,
Alone, with naked fists and naked faith, for five Soul-shattering days and nights you kept alive
The passion to be free . . .
The fitful furious flame of Liberty.

And when at last you fell
You shook the citadel
Of Tyranny
Down to its uttermost base in hell . . .
And shook our hearts as well.

(The above is an excerpt from a long poem by Joseph Auslander, which appears in the March 30 issue of the "Saturday Evening Post," now on sale throughout Australia.)

OLYMPIC CHAMPION

Left full-back Jeno Dalnoki has been an Hungarian international on several occasions; but the brightest item in his sparkling record is the one which tells how, when he was only 20 years old, he was a member of the Hungarian team which won the Olympic Games Championship at Helsinki in 1952.

HUNGARY'S TOP LEFT WINGER

Hungary's outstanding outside left is the 24-year-old Mate Fenyvesi. He is brilliant with both of his twinkling, highly educated feet, and has played his position in the National team 13 times.

RUYTERS IS STAR AGAINST AUSTRIA

STAR of Australia's shock 3-2 victory over Austria in Newcastle last Saturday was Victorian Dutchman, Joe Ruyters, the wizard of Wilhelmina. He took everything the glamor team from Vienna had to offer in the second half, and was beaten only twice.

Obviously Austria took the match lightly in the early stages, and wasted valuable time showing off their masterful ball-control. Australia ignored the fancy-work and headed for goal, led 1-0 at the interval, and 2-0 one minute after resumption.

The shocked Austrians then got down to business, urged on by their trainer, but Joe Ruyters and his fellow-defenders held fast.

Said the Sydney "Telegraph": "Hero of the match, Australian goalie Joe Ruyters, made several astonishing saves. The Austrian trainer urged his men to equalise. They forgot their finesse . . . swooped on Ruyters . . . gave him a torrid time. Ruyters revealed his class . . . managed to save several red hot shots."

Said the "Sun-Herald": "... a spectacular display by goalkeeper Joe Ruyters paved the way for the win."

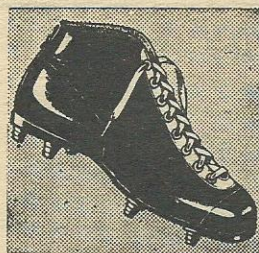

Has anybody got Jan's cup?

AT the end of last season and on the same night, Slavia and Polonia and Hakoah held cabaret dances. Jan Hellebrandt, a Slavia Reserve player, visited the first two, and the hospitality was so generous that he never reached Hakoah's affair.

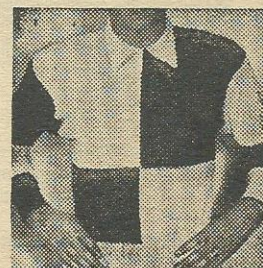

In fact, end-of-season spirit flowed so copiously that Jan suffered three losses—a lost dinner, a lost week-end, and a lost cup.

Now he's trying to recover the lost cup through "Soccer News." It's a small-sized player's trophy, presented by Slavia to each of their reserve players who were runners-up in the 1956 Armstrong Cup.

Jan's name is on it, and we will be glad to hear from any one who may have found it.

HUNGARIAN TEAM READY FOR EMERGENCIES

Team's Daddy

(Above) This is Mihaly Kispeter, the daddy of the Hungarian team: he's 37, but he has played the stopper position in the National team no less than 11 times.

(Right) Sandor Matrai is thought to be the speediest footballer in Hungary. He has been officially timed at 10.9 sec. over 100 metres! He plays centre-half, and has represented Hungary twice in the National team.

THE Hungarian touring party contains 22 personnel, shrewdly selected to meet and overcome any eventuality which may crop up in their long tour.

The club's own physician is included in the four non-playing members of the group, and the other three are capable executives:

Manager and Coach: Prof. A. CSANARDI.

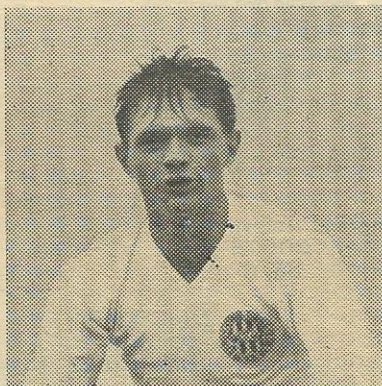

Physician: Dr. J. JUHASZ.

Executive: Mr. S. SZARAD.

Leader: Mr. L. ONODI.

The 18 players include several utility men who can give a good account of themselves in any position on the field:—

SPEEDY PIVOT

GULYAS, Geza: Goalkeeper; 26 years old; spectacular and possesses uncanny anticipation.

VIRAG, Jozef: Goalkeeper; 17; a Junior International.

OMBODY, Imre: Full-back; 30; an extremely skilful but lightweight defender; often a member of the National B. team.

GERENDAS, Andor: Half-back; 24; a regular F.T.C. player of great promise.

DEKANY, Ferenc: Half-back; 28; a Doctor of Law; short in stature, but often a member of the National B. team.

KERTESZ, Tamas: Outside-right; 28; twice in the National team and expected to become the regular selection at this position.

LANG, Karoly: Forward; 26; a clever and versatile utility forward.

BORSOS, Miklos: Forward; 23; a Hungarian National Reserve with classy technique.

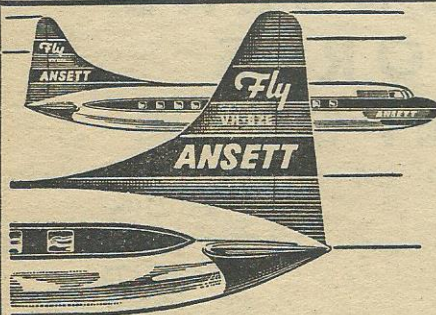

OROSZ, Pal: Forward; 23; one of Hungary's outstanding inside forwards.

MESZAROS, Jozef: Forward; 22; opportunist with top-class control.

VILEZSAL, Oszkar: Forward; 27; F.T.C.'s tactician and goal-maker.

FRIEDMANSZKY, Zoltan: Utility player; 21; can play any position, including goal.

J.U.S.T. SUFFERS SECOND DEFEAT

TOPSY-turvy results in the First Division last week included J.U.S.T.'s defeat by Juventus, but the three clubs in equal second position on the ladder, who stood to gain most by the leader's loss, spoiled their chances by splitting the points.

J.U.S.T. showed signs of complacency and over-confidence against Juventus. If the Redsox want the pennant, that attitude won't do. They have it all figured out that they can drop two games out of the remaining six, and still win the flag, but they mustn't allow smugness to dull their attacking, goal-scoring football.

Moreland's speedy forwards sliced through Wilhelmina's makeshift defence like a knife through butter. All five of them scored goals, and from all angles.

Joe Ruyters' absence with the Australian team in Newcastle, and left full-back Cor Mathysen's omission from the line-up due to an injury sustained at work, made a great deal of difference to Wilhelmina's defence, but it would be incorrect to rob Moreland of its rightful measure of credit.

Slavia's single goal in its last two games — a 0-1 defeat by Brighton and a 1-1 draw with Box Hill — added to its previous inconsistent efforts, must be causing some nail-biting in this club. The forward line, though it reads like a real goal-producer, is turning in a puny tally.

Brighton's friends are heart-sick over the Seasiders' lack of cohesion. Polonia's ability must always be respected, but the 5-0 thrashing handed out to Brighton by the Redshirts was nothing less than frightening.

Hakoah and Geelong put on an entertaining 2-all draw at Olympic Park — Geelong's sixth draw in 12 games.

THE BREAKAWAY IN N.S.W.

Victorians are aware that two soccer bodies are operating in New South Wales — the Association and a breakaway group which is known as the Federation. On my recent trip to Sydney, I sought information on the subject that might prove revealing to the Victorian public, which is more or less in the dark in this connection.

A State League has operated in New South Wales. During 1954, Sydney-Austral intimated that if it was not granted promotion, a breakaway would be formed, but a meeting to discuss this possibility collapsed.

At the end of season 1955, a similar situation occurred, this time the club concerned being Prague.

The Board of the Association then resolved that the 1st Division League would consist of twelve teams instead of the previous ten.

Hakoah was denied promotion at the end of 1956, and in the ensuing discussions the N.S.W. body decreed that promotion and relegation would operate at the END of season 1957, one team up and one team down.

Unfortunately for soccer, a number of clubs felt dissatisfied with this decision, and on this and other grounds, a breakaway was effected.

In a recent effort to heal the breach, the Association Board of Directors placed a 21-point plan before the Federation. It appears that only one point of contention remains — the Association's condition that the Board of Directors should consist of seven INDEPENDENT members. The Board would continue to control the assets of the Association, which is a Public Company, would act as an Appeals Board, and would arrange and control interstate and international tours.

The Board further suggested that two Leagues be formed, one in Sydney and one in Newcastle, and that the Leagues manage their own affairs.

The Federation, however, will accept nothing less than control of the Association through a voting majority of CLUB DELEGATES on the Board of Directors.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

The N.S.W. Association has forged ahead rapidly in the past few seasons. In 1950, the Junior Association received £300. In 1956, it received £2,800, which brought the total given to the Juniors in the last four seasons to nearly £8,000.

In 1953, 132,000 fans paid for admission. In 1956, the total had risen to 346,000. Soccer House, which was purchased for £40,000, could have been sold for £60,000 this season. High finance indeed!

A last thought — a breakaway occurred in 1942, and for a period soccer was controlled by club delegates. It was not long before it was resolved that a Board of Directors be formed, consisting of independent members. The body then elected has brought soccer in N.S.W. a long way.

— by Stuart Beaton

Would it be wise to return now to control by club delegates?

Has the standing of soccer in N.S.W. made this move imperative?

Has the existing Board proved itself capable of controlling soccer in N.S.W.?

It is not for me to make comment. I have merely endeavoured to present the facts to Victorian soccer enthusiasts.

ATTACK BY BOZ BAULKED

WILHELMINA IN SYDNEY

WILHELMINA accepted Leichhardt-Annandale's invitation for a one-day flip to Sydney last Sunday, and defeated their hosts, 5-3.

Joe Ruyter took his place between the sticks in the first half, but suffered intense pain from the heavy bruising he received in Newcastle the day before, when F.K. Austria gave him a hot time in the last 30 minutes.

For the second half — much to Joe's relief — Leichhardt provided a substitute goal for the Windmills.

Wilhelmina had control of the game in all stages, leading 3-1 at half-time. Goalkickers for the visitors were: Yntema, 2; de Bruyckere, 2; and Luyten, 1.

Who Gets Joe?

Joe Ruyters is wanted for Australia v. F.K. Austria in Sydney to-day, an Australin XI v. Hungary in Adelaide to-day, and Victoria v. Hungary at Olympic Park to-morrow.

Who'll get Joe?

CURRENT COMMENT

THE Slavia-Juventus Reserve Cup tie appears to have been a top-class schemozzle. Juventus started with ten men, lost two injured, two were sent off, finished with six players, lost 3-6 after extra time, and was glad — very glad — to get dressed and go home.

DES. HAMILTON: Grim doings at both end of the 2nd Division ladder. Three leaders within a point of each other, and Hellenic right behind with a match up its sleeve. At the relegation end, South Yarra looks a goner, leaving three clubs to fight for safety.

Popular Joe Gottesman has opened a fruitery at 138 Ormond Road, Elwood. No doubt plenty of Hakoah and Slavia fans will be happy to do business with him, and probably Joe will be happy to sell cases of oranges to clubs — for cash! For Joe's natural vitamins, ring LF7510.

SALES RESISTANCE: "Soccer News" seller at Olympic Park thrust a copy at a potential customer and cried: "Buy a programme. You can't tell the players without a programme!"

"No, thanks," replied the fan. "I ain't got nothing to tell 'em."

GIRLS!

A WELCOME innovation will be seen at Olympic Park next Saturday, prior to the match Hungary v. Austria, and during the interval.

The marching girls of a Moorabbin physical fitness club, led by Miss Annette Garlick, will demonstrate precision and pattern marching.

Music will be provided by the Moorabbin City Band, conducted by Mr. A. Glenn, and led by Mr. M. Bowes.

They are calling Hans van Egmond, Hakoah's goalie, the Atom Bomb now. Charging forwards disintegrate upon collision.

PAUL BORG: Victorian Colts upset Coburg's hopes of promotion by beating them 3-1 last week. Losers reckon that any team which plays the Colts on the true surface at Olympic Park is liable to get a thrashing.

Has visiting Hungarian team FERENCVAROS already lost their captain to a local 2nd Division side? South Melbourne United lists a Dekany at inside forward. Dr. Ferenc Dekany, of Budapest?

DES HAMILTON: That tall, gangling Hellenic centre-forward was too much of a handful for South Melbourne's defence last week. He scored two clever goals and converted a penalty to win for his side, 3-1. (For your private information, Des, his name is Tony Karayannis.—Ed.)

PROTESTS DISMISSED

HAKOAH'S protest, lodged against the result of its match with Juventus on May 25 at Olympic Park, was dismissed by the League Management Committee.

Basis of the protest was that the match, which Hakoah lost 1-3, was played approximately 8 minutes short of the required 90 minutes.

A protest against the result of the Slavia-Juventus Armstrong Cup tie on June 22nd, entered by Juventus, was also dismissed.

Rino Carollo, captain of the Juventus Reserves, stated that, when his team was leading 3-2 near the end of the game, he took a penalty kick for his side. It was blocked, he said, but he netted the return. This "goal," which would have clinched the game for Juventus 4-2, was disallowed by the referee.

Slavia won 6-3 after extra time.
